CAMP BEAUREGARD

DEDICATION

IN APPRECIATION for all that he has done for each and every one of us, the students of Ottawa dedicate this Legend to Major H. D. MacNaughton, our principal. Since October of 1940, Mr. MacNaughton has been in defense training with the 126th infantry at Camp Beauregard, Louisiana. Upon his return next term he will again take up the task of leading his army of students.

LIEUTENANT COLONEL SIDNEY ELEVELD

THIS YEAR more than ever Ottawa should have a greater patriotic feeling. Our own Mr. Sidney Eleveld has been in national defense service at Camp Livingston, Louisiana, since October. He has been active in the National Guards for many years and was recently promoted to the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel. Just as he has guided many of Ottawa's boys toward a life-long vocation, he is now helping to guide many of the nation's young men toward a fuller life and greater service to their country.

FORWARD

"Tention! Squads right! Forward march!" These commands are being heard daily by the young men whom America's defense program has called to army camps the country over. "Company, halt!" The steady tramp ceases as the officer's voice booms, "Today's march extends over familiar grounds." With anticipation, the soldiers hear, "Forward, march!" With this command, we too, march off to visit familiar ground, our own Ottawa Hills High School.

commanding officers

Mrs. Sigler Assists The Commanding Officer

Assisting the commanding officer of Ottawa's army is Lou I. Sigler, the assistant principal. She is also principal of Ottawa and Alexander elementary schools.

She takes charge of the orientation of seventh grade students and helps their mothers get acquainted with the instructors.

She is the past president of M.E.A., Grand Rapids Teachers' club, and State Federation of Teachers' club; and is a member of the first Teachers' Retirement Fund Board.

Outside of school she spends her time doing art work, and is interested in children's dramatics.

She attended Western State Teachers' College where she received her A.B. degree. She also received an honorary M. of Ed. degree from Michigan State College.

Mr. Shillinger Leads Ottawa's Army

PATRIOTISM! With patriotism we associate democracy and with democracy we must have leaders. Ottawa Hills High School's commanding officer is Mr. Shillinger, the acting principal.

Mr. Shillinger came to us from South High School last October 15, when Mr. MacNaughton was called to active duty in the army. At South Mr. Shillinger was a business arithmetic teacher for twenty-two years and managed the athletic association since 1936.

Very ably he took over the guiding and directing of Ottawa's army of around 1,500 students. He took command of their programs, seeing that they took the right subjects for college work or for graduation. He assigned the teachers to their rooms and to their study halls and classes. He saw that school rules and laws around the halls and rooms were enforced.

Mr. Shillinger graduated from Western State Teachers College and the University of Michigan. He also attended Stout Institute and Columbia University and has received his B.S. and M.A. degrees.

Athletics Leads Ottawa's Army

ATTENTION! Heels together! Shoulders back! Chest out! Chin in! Forward march!

As Ottawa's army marches on, good posture is necessary. This is gained in the Physical Education classes. Here they also learn to continue the march through life as good sports ready to help another fellow in need.

Miss Ellinger, the girls' gym teacher, is having a softball tournament in the seventh, eighth, and ninth grades this Spring. She is the sponsor of the Lewa Club, the girls' athletic club.

Mr. Koets, the boys' gym teacher, also coaches the second teams in football and basketball and the first team in baseball.

Art Stirs Patriotism Among Students

ART IS ONE of the subjects that is very helpful in the school because they make all the posters for the football games, basketball games and other athletic activities and for the other activities given by the various organizations. They also help in the publications throughout the year.

Miss Zellner's eighth grade art classes are working on oil paintings, and Miss William's does clay modeling, wood carving, and drawings. In the picture Miss Crego watches two girls doing wood carving.

Miss Crego watches Eleanor Roetman and Ethel Breen carve each other's face on a wooden block. Truly interesting.

Braille Students Are Part of Ottawa's Army

LOVISA A. RORABECK AND HELEN V. MOUNT have charge of Ottawa's Braille department. They have supervision of the student from the time he enters the kindergarten until his senior year.

The three systems of Braille — the literary, the mathematical, and the musical — are taught. They take all the subjects taught to regular students and beginning in Junior High they take their work in their respective grades with the seeing pupils, their work being prepared in the braille room.

Commercial Students Enjoy Democracy

OTTAWA's commercial department is one of the most vital of the school for it deals with students from the Junior High grades on through their senior year.

Miss Barnaby gives her students office procedure projects and also has them enter national and international contests.

Students in Miss Robinson's classes work for typing awards and take Gregg transcription speed tests.

Patriotism Leads to Good English

PATRIOTISM tends to lead to good English and to help students, through literature, to become acquainted with people of other times.

Miss Baloyan, who helped to organize dramatics clubs in three local high schools this year, has her classes participate in creative writing and visiting civic institutions.

Miss Termeer in the Junior High organized English clubs, and one of Miss Kortering's students built a replica of an Elizabethan theatre in the study of "As You Like It."

Miss Holmes is giving to her classes remedied reading which has proved very successful.

Foreign Language Makes Students Patriotic

IN A DEMOCRACY where all nationalities live and all languages are spoken, teaching foreign languages is important.

Ottawa teaches Latin and French and has a Latin club called "S.P.Q.R." and a French club "Les Amateurs Français."

In the Latin classes taught by Miss Katherine Smith, a wall panel was made illustrating the costumes of Roman men and women. A model Roman home was redecorated and refinished and two recordings of class work were made.

In Miss Horn's French class culture points are given when a student visits art and furniture exhibits, French movies, opera and ballet, lectures about France and French Canada, or reads magazine articles, and biographies.

Home Economics

Betters Democracy

HOME ECONOMICS makes better homes which in turn makes a better democracy. Miss Matheson, Miss Davis, and Miss Jackson are Ottawa's three teachers that give instruction in this work.

In 7-1 Foods the girls learn to prepare breakfast and in 7-2 they learn to make lunches and dinners. Occasionally the girls have a party on special days such as Valentine Day.

Miss Davis gave out questionnaires to her senior students on Pupil Interests and Needs, which proved very interesting.

OTTAWA is proud of its library and the democratic way in which it is run. The two full-time librarians spend eight hours each school day and Monday and Thursday evenings in the library.

Mathematics Marches On!

SINCE EVERY ARMY needs engineers, and all engineers need mathematics, mathematics is an important subject in a democracy.

Starting with elementary Algebra a student can take mathematics on through Trigonometry. It may count as a major or minor in counting credits for graduation.

Miss Bader and Miss Seegmiller, two of our math teachers, are sponsors of Senior Girls' League groups, and Miss Seegmiller is sponsor of the entire League.

Mr. Toland, also a mathematics teacher, is sponsor of the National Honor Society.

To GRADUATE from high school everyone must have at least one year of science. Most of the students, however, go on and take more, some even taking enough to have it count as a major.

In the chemistry classes many special projects are done by active students. They are chemical posters, molecular models, atomic models, and other original projects that deal with chemistry.

Mr. Richardson has an interesting special activity that he does in the summer, that of banding birds for the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

Patriotic Students Sing and Enjoy Music

EVERYONE SINGS in a democracy because singing signifies happiness. Because Ottawa's student body is patriotic and happy a large number of its members participate in the vocal and instrumental music classes.

All the students in the Junior High grades are required to take vocal music. When they enter Senior High School they may join the glee clubs or choir, or play in the band or orchestra.

Mr. Vander Ploeg is doing one of his commonest tasks, that of marking papers.

History and Patriotism Go Hand-in-Hand

HISTORY AND PATRIOTISM seem to go hand-in-hand in a high school course. It is through history we gain our knowledge of the early struggles for democracy and it is in government and civics that we learn the principles of it and how to appreciate it.

A student is required to take one year of history and one semester of government to graduate. In the Junior High grades the pupils take geography as well as history and civics.

Peace Pipe Oration

This Peace Pipe, which to the eye appears to be but a simple, carved piece of wood, has behind it a tradition, which has increased each year that this emblem has been handed down to the succeeding class. It not only symbolizes the achievements attained and the standards set in scholarship, athletics, and good will, but also embodies the sentiments felt in the hearts of all the seniors under its influence.

We, the senior class of 1941, feel we have upheld and furthered, to our greatest ability, the customs and ideals set forth in this Peace Pipe, and we now charge you, the senior class of 1942, to do your utmost to carry on to a higher degree the tradition we and our predecessors have established. This is the responsibility we place upon your shoulders. We sincerely hope and truly feel that you will do your best, and that you will demonstrate the character, scholarship, leadership, and loyalty of which you are capable.

- JOHN KETT

Peace Pipe Acceptance

It is a grave and serious responsibility that we assume when we accept this peace pipe, symbolizing the achievements of Ottawanians for over 15 years. These traditions have been well forwarded by this graduating class, and truly present a challenge to carry on in your footsteps. Benefiting by your splendid example, we shall continue to uphold the high standards of our school, so that, a year hence, we may be able to pass on this token, knowing that we have added to its prestige and honor.

Ottawa will feel a loss in your parting, but we sincerely wish you success in any fields that you may enter, and we hope that the chapters yet to come in your life will be written with the same vigor and character which you have displayed here.

Thus it is with best wishes for the class of 1941, and a sincere resolve for the future of the class of 1942 that I accept this peace pipe on behalf of the Junior Class.

- REED ROBERTS

Mr. Cook's history classes are always very worth-while, and among those who find it that way are Gerald Potter, Peter De Witt, Gloria Ryskamp, and Ruth Postema. The interesting atmosphere of a session of history, brought about by the charts and wealth of pictorial material that Mr. Cook and students of former classes have collected, makes his classes extremely interesting. Many students look forward to history class, for history is made vivid by an interesting discussion with clever stories and illustrations.

John Ward is receiving unusual attention from the third hour English VIII class. Listening intently are Ruth Westerman, Barbara Jennings, Jacquelyn Yarrington, Russell Dooge, and Dick Ernst.

This year the senior English classes have studied Shake-speare, Milton, Carlyle, Pope, and other famous authors and poets. The classes have been unusually interesting because of group discussions and debates.

The subjects of these class discussions arose from theories of well-known writers, and the classes found that these old theories were also modern ideas.

Advancing to the front with sure and steady marching, the tenth battalion will soon take the positions that the eleventh division has left.

All year they have worked, trained for the time when they would be the junior class, and later, seniors. That training for leadership, though it is begun long before reaching the tenth grade, is most important then.

The democracy that today is a vital issue to every citizen is being developed in these classes, in round table discussions. with everyone taking part. From this training will come the governing forces of a world democracy such as we want.

Science Teaches Independence of Thought

Aspiring young scientists find an outlet for their enthusiasm in the Chemphybio Club. Movies, lectures and reports help to stimulate interest in scientific projects and give the students a chance to delve further into subjects that are of special interest to them. Two projects, the Pond project and the classification of insect families, were successfully completed by the club as a whole this past year.

The club maintains a supply of science magazines which may be used by anyone in the science department.

Social activities also hold a part in the club's program. Many very successful spreads were held throughout the year at the homes of various members which proved to be a pleasant way for the members to become acquainted.

Anyone is eligible for membership who has had at least one year of some science with an "A" average for one semester or a "B" average for two semesters. Any pupil having three semesters of science is eligible. All members must have a recommendation by a science instructor.

Freedom of the Press

The purpose of the Quill and Scroff Club is to further the interest of students in the field of journalism. This organization is an honor society open only to those who have had at least one semester of journalism and who are in the upper third of their class.

The power of the press is imbued in the minds of all who are connected with the club. At this time, when all the world in nutricial, we may be thankful that in these United States of America our inalienable rights remain untouched including our right to freedom of the press. Quill and Scroll teaches one to appreciate this right and to make the most of it.

SUPERIOR STUDENTS HONOR EDATIONAL

The National Honor Society is made up of pupils of highest calibre. There are many things to be considered by the faculty committee in selecting these students who are to be honored. First they must rank in the apper twenty live per cent of their class scholastically. Leadership, character, and service to the school are held just as important as scholarship.

ship, character, and service to the school are held just as important as scholarship.

These members have proven themselves superior to their classmates in many ways and it is further reason that we look up to them now as our leaders and wish them success as the future leaders of our country.

The Senate and the People

Early Rome represents a period of truly democratic government. The S. P. Q. R. Club creates an interest in the form of government of the Roman days as well as in the language itself. Many interesting facts are brought to the attention of the students during their meetings as they are held on some date of great importance to Roman history, such as the Ides of March, April 21st, the foundation of Rome and Athens.

Any Latin IV student is eligible for membership who has earned an "A" mark in Latin I. Those taking Latin III or IV automatically become members of the club. S. P. Q. R. has been organized for only three years and already it has secured a high place for itself in the eyes of the students of Ottawa.

Liberty is Sweet

Having a deep and true understanding of the French people, their customs and their country is the aim of the French Club. Not only is this beneficial to the students in their study of the language, but due to the study of the plight of a free people it brings closer the secure feeling of a democracy.

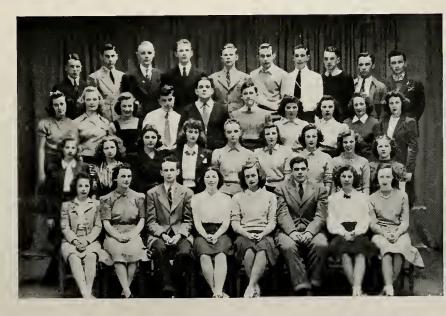

Membership is open to all students having attained an "A" record in their first semester of work or to those receiving "B" grades in their first two semesters. French V pupils automatically become members.

The yearly activities are numerous and varied, covering plays, puppet shows movies, games and songs all done in French.

Each year an award is presented to the pupil having the best record in three years of French work.

Mimes Marches Forward

This year Mimes was unusually active. After producing three successful one act plays, "The Devil and Daniel Webster." 'Where the Cross Is Made," and "No! Not the Russians!', Mimes celebrated at tenth anaryersary at a banquet held in the Fountain Street Baptist Church. All the previous Manes groups were well represented and the occasion proved to be one of immense enjoyment.

Perhaps it never occurred to you that all the backstage work during the many assemblies throughout the year is taken care of by stage crew members of the Mimes Club.

This organization is one which has brought national recognition to our school and one to which it is a profound honor to belong.

Above we see Miss Baloyan directing Dave Potts, Lois Burns, and Dick Ernst as they rehearsed the one-act play, "Where the Cross Is Made."

Homemakers of Tomorrow

What America needs more than anything else today is more women who are skilled in economical and practical household management. Our Home Economics Club stresses this very point as its primary purpose. In order to be eligible for membership to the club, a girl must have at least one year of Clothing or Foods with an average grade of "B".

Each year the club awards to one Senior girl who has majored in Home Economics, a prize of five dollars. The organization, under the supervision of Lela Davis, has sponsored many spreads, teas, and educational trips throughout the year.

Student Government, A True Democracy

There is no better time than the present for students to learn to value the rights existing under democratic rule. It is this organization, The Student Council, made up of representatives from every class and organization in the school, which lays down the laws of our particular school concerning the student body. It is at the meetings held every other Monday that problems of all sorts are brought up and discussed. The Council is very much interested in making the students more appreciative of the conditions of Government existing in America today. Throughout the year it has been responsible for keeping us aware of our duty to our flag by sending a member to at least one session room a day where the pledge to the flag was given.

The Student Council has patterned itself after our United States government. The President has as his cabinet a group of fine chairmen of various committees. The chairmen of the committees are as follows: Social, Mary Ulrich; Handbook, Bob Landstra; Financial, David Potts; Welfare, Minerva Guerin and Stanley Fuehrer; and Activities, Bud Koranda. Every member on the Student Council is a member of at least one of the committees just mentioned, thus the organization can be operated more efficiently without burdening a few people.

Our Council has been most active this year under the excellent sponsorship of Katherine Smith. A delegate, Stanley Fuehrer, was sent by the Student Council to the National Youth Red Cross Convention held at Washington. There have been many assemblies for your pleasure and education brought through the Council this past year, of which the most outstanding were the Washington-Lincoln Day program and the Exchange assembly. A new Indian Guide was edited by the Handbook Committee with the aid of Miss Holmes and Mr. Buboltz. The Indian Guide is an article which will be of use to the student throughout his high-school career.

Cords Carry Our Colors Forward

All the boys in the Cordelier Club are members because they have proven themselves competent in one or more sports. Each boy must maintain an average of "C" in all his studies before he is eligible for membership to the club.

The underlying purpose of the Cords organization is to promote good sportsmanship among the student body. Every year the boys acknowledge the best all-around boy by presenting him with a cup dedicated to this purpose.

The club sponsored many parties throughout the year, of which the most prominent was their annual dance, the name of which this year was, "Rhythm on the River."

Hi-Y Endeavors to be Loyal

The spirit of patriotism is carried on by the Hi-Y boys who endeavor to lead loyal lives. Their aims are also to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character.

Their most important activity is to usher at the assemblies. We want to thank the boys for maintaining peace and order in the auditorium.

Among other activities we find they have havrides, dances, spreads, and swimming parties. Their basketball and hockey teams were active this year.

The boys of this division present a cup to the best all-around boy who is also high in scholastic ability.

Senior Girls Continue

Just as there is a League of Nations so is there a League of Senior Girls. Last year Miss Seegmiller suggested a league to be formed to further friendship of the senior girls as a group. The league proved such an interest that this year the girls organized in the early fall again. The officers were elected and the president is Barbara Hatch; vice-president, Mary Jean Helm; recording secretary, Mary Ann Griffin; treasurer, Betty Grainger; corresponding secretary, Minerva Guerin; sergeant-at-arms, Ruth Koessel.

Nearly every girl in the senior class is a member of the league. Any girl who is a student at Ottawa Hills High School and who has one hundred ten credits is eligible. This year there are five instead of four groups each with its respective student leader and faculty advisor. Lois Burns and Miss Zimmer have charge of group 1; Mary Mastenbrook and Miss Seegmiller of group 2; Sue Allen and Miss Bader of group 3; Norma Heyer and Miss Tenhaaf of group 4; and Mary Zwald and Miss Baloyan of group 5.

A group such as this one certainly helps the girls to become better acquainted and to enhance the democratic feeling among them,

Their Democratic Ways

Once each month each group has a spread at a member's home. Ways of earning money are discussed. The groups contribute to a sum of $50 which is given to an outstanding senior girl to help her continue her education. The girls have enjoyed giving bake sales, cake sales, rummage and paper sales, and other means of raising money for this worthy cause.

A tea is held the Thursday following the spreads in the English room. Each group has its turn being responsible for entertainment. The speakers talk on subjects that are of interest to young ladies.

Among those who spoke were Dr. Masselink, who told about the world conditions of today; Mrs. Folkman gave a very inspiring message on the attitude toward life; Miss Baloyan read a Christmas story at the Christmas tea. Cosmetics was another talk of vital interest which was delivered by Dr. Herrick.

In May a banquet was held in East Congregational Church. Each group dressed to portray a song. Mrs. Siegel Judd was the speaker.

Juniors! it's up to you to carry on! The senior girls challenge you to have as good times as they had.

Commercial Club Exhibits Loyalty

The membership of the club has enlarged just as patriotism does where an interest is shown. The purposes of this organization are to develop commercial interests, receive inspirations from ones in the business world, and to participate in social activities. This year the club is starting a record of former graduates to learn of their experiences, thus helping to prepare themselves for a peaceful path instead of a battle of their own.

New members taking pledge of loyalty to the club are left to right: N. Coleman, V. Zuiderwind, T. Rawlings, N. Koning, B. Rawn, M. Cobb, E. Breen, B. Huber, J. Helmholdt, V. Vanden Berg, M. A Cappella Choir Renders Service in Song

Yes, they render service in song to Ottawa Hills students and to other citizens of Grand Rapids as well. Among the many places they were called to serve was the annual P. T. A. Dinner of Ottawa Hills, the Grand Rapids Business Women's Club, the Women's City Club at a Christmas Program, Immanuel Reformed Church, the West Side Ladies' Literary Club, broadcasts over Station WLAV, All-City Vocal Concert at South High School, and Central Reformed Church. They also assisted at Graham Cook's organ recital. They sang in the May Festival, and at the Armistice Day assembly at Ottawa.

Their purpose is to seriously study choral works of superior quality.

The members receive credit towards graduation. One senior student each June receives a silver cup as an award for superior characteristics of cooperation, musicianship, and achievement.

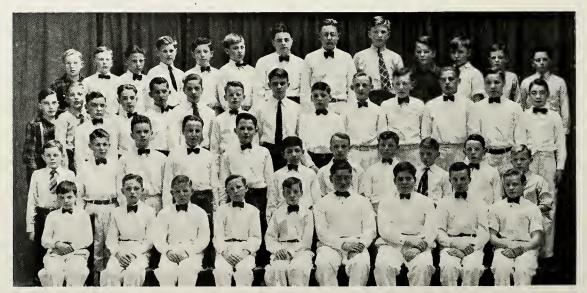

On their way to sing at the Lenten Service at East Congregational Church we see the choir members with vestments.

Loyalty in Song is Carried on by the Senior High Mixed Chorus

The citizens of America would be unhappy if the freedom of singing favorite patriotic songs of love and loyalty to their own country were forbidden.

Anyone who has a desire to sing with others may be in these clubs. It is very necessary that the members are punctual and regular at their rehearsals. The purpose of the organizations is to provide opportunity for students to sing choral music. It is an activity preliminary to choral music. It is an activity preliminary to choir membership. They also sing in assemblies and school concerts.

The members of the Junior Girls' Glee Club receive a certificate for perfect attendance, and the boys receive an Indian Head Seal for the same. The Senior Mixed Glee Club members receive credit toward graduation.

The May festival was a great inspiration to those who attended. The seventh grades gave the cantata, "The Walrus and the Carpenter" by Fletcher. The eighth grade sang the song "Home," an arrangement of Largo from the New World Symphony by Dvorak. The Junior Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs sang and so did the Senior Mixed Chorus. The beautiful concert ended with a combined choir of all the vocal organizations rendering "The Heavens Resound" by Beethoven.

Senior Band Strives to Put Their Talent on Parade

Here is a section of the band at he Spring Concert. They are about to play another beautiful number.

Music plays a large part in the army of Ottawa students as well as the army of the United States. The Instrumental Department of Ottawa Hills is made up of several divisions, the Senior Orchestra; the Senior Band; the Junior Orchestra; the Junior Band; Beginning Classes; and Ensembles. Their commanding officer is Mr. Merwyn Mitchell.

Each member of each division must have certain qualifications. He must have a liking for music and ability to play an instrument well enough to profit by playing.

These divisions have a certain purpose and a certain ideal. It is: to learn about music as an art, from the listeners' viewpoint, as well as the playing of some musical instrument.

Senior Orchestra Cooperates

To learn about music as an art, from the listeners' viewpoint, as well as the playing of some musical instrument.

The musical department has many opportunities to put its talents on parade. They play for assemblies, concerts, festivals, march at football games, and ensembles and solos are prepared for small gatherings, and also for radio broadcast.

Faithful practice and talent does not go unrewarded. Band letters are sought after by every student. Also, every year an instrumental award is given for character and musicianship to the one student who is most deserving.

The Junior Orchestra is practicing and are, from left to right: First row: B. Hall, R. Hansen. Second row: R. Tindall, J. Veendall, R. Poelstra, R. Brown, J. Stricklen, H. Willems. Third row: R. Junior Band and Orchestra Prepare

Every band must have its beginning, its preparation for membership in the senior division. The Junior Band, therefore, is an extremely important organization in the Instrumental Department. Mr. Merwyn Mitchell is the sponsor, and its qualifications for membership and its purpose and ideals are identical with those of the senior division. Its activities and its awards also coincide with the rest of the department.

Football Takes Fall Spotlight

September 4, 1940, saw the beginning of another football season at Ottawa Hills with about 119 boys turning out for practice during the first week. The squad was eventually narrowed down to two teams, a first and second squad, composed of those boys who, in Coach Palmer's mind, possessed the willingness to engage in this sport whole-heartedly.

After three weeks of practice, during which the recruits gained from experience and the teachings of their coach, the first trial of the team's ability was on September 21.

Ottawa 27; East Grand Rapids 0

The opening game of the 1940 season resulted in the Ottawa team routing a light East Grand Rapids team to a toppling victory. The Pioneers fought hard, but in vain.

Ottawa 0; Creston 14

The Indians suffered their first defeat at the hands of the Polar Bears. Scoring was made in the first half, with the Indians lacking the punch to win.

Individual pictures: Capt. J. Grant, W. Audy, B. Batts, T. Blackburn, and L. Daniels.

Ottawa 6; Davis Tech 6

A score tied by an unexpected trick-pass play in the last few minutes of play tripped up a beautifully-played game to make it one defeat and one tie in city league play.

Ottawa 7; Catholic Central 0

A win typified by a successful goal line stand in the last period, provided the Indians with their first city league win of the season.

Ottawa 6; South 13

Outplayed but fighting for three quarters, the South team rallied to defeat the Indians in the last period.

Ottawa 12; Grand Haven 13

Grand Haven was the site of a heart-breaking game, highlighted by a seventy-five yard touch-down run by Jack Grant in the first quarter.

Above: Fred Razoog, No. 3, Jack Hodson, No. 19, Bob Read, No. 18, and Bob Landstra are seen about to stop a Tech play.

Individuals below: D. Darling, F. Dykstra, J. Endres, R. Ernst, R. Etheridge, and G. Ghareeb.

Ottawa 7; Union 6

A last-half drive and a successful extra point proved Ottawa the possessor of hidden power and teamwork. City league results now showed that Ottawa had won two, lost two, and tied one.

Ottawa 13; Central 7

The last game of the 1940 season found a Central homecoming the victim of a smashing Ottawa victory. Ottawa's touchdowns were made in the first half, while Central succeeded in the last period. City league showed: three wins, two losses, and one tie.

Therefore, out of a total of eight games played, Ottawa won four, lost three, and tied one. A season sparked by the outstanding play of Jack Grant, captain and all-city halfback, was finished, much to the regret of the graduating seniors. Grant will turn over his captain role to Bob Read, an outstanding tackle and chosen on the all-city second team.

Coach Palmer, whose teams have always been rated as outstanding, will find many prospects and letter winners returning for next year's campaign.

Out of the second team's ranks the first team of later years is produced. Evidence has been uncovered showing that our teams to come will rate among the leaders by the spirit and all-around good play of the second team in the 1940 season. Although the gladiators of the second team do not receive any glory, they prove to the coach that they are playing football because they love the game, which is a very important factor in producing a championship football team.

The 1941 schedule looks like a tough season up against good competition, but referring to former years the Indians should rate with the best.

Individuals at side: J. Hodson, J. Horn, J. Kett, B. Koranda, N. Krombeen, and R. Landstra.

Individuals: R. Read, W. Tausend, R. Truckle, W. Sterkenberg, J. Ward, and J. Zaremba.

Wrestling is Top Ranking

The completion of the wrestling season of 1941 brought one state champion and four city champions into the Ottawa camp. Dan Decker took first honors in the 137-lb. class, while Ed Schnieder and Warren Townsend were second in their divisions.

The city meet resulted in Ottawa taking four first place honors. Dinny Hams took his fourth city championship in as many years. His division this year was 130-lb. division. Schnieder, Townsend, and Decker placed first in the 112-, 122-, and 137-lb. classes respectively.

This year's captain and defending state champion, Ray Lang, suffered a defeat that was greater than the loss of a match. During practice before the city meet, he broke two bones in his hand which kept him from defending his city championship and also depriving him the satisfaction of gaining more recognition at the state meet at Michigan State College in East Lansing.

Coach Palmer developed many good and promising wrestlers during the season that will carry the Ottawa banner on to victory in years to come.

Union, defending city champions, was Ottawa's first opponent. The result of this dual meet was a 23 to 23 tie. The next meet saw the State Champion East Detroit wrestlers hand Ottawa a 24 to 14 setback. The tribe then overwhelmed South to a score of 32 to 8. Again meeting Union, the Indians were defeated, 26 to 14.

Ottawa placed several men on the winning list in an invitational East Detroit tourney, which was held Saturday afternoon and night, February 22, at East Detroit. Ray Lang took a first place in the 170-lb. class, Doug Sterns took second in the 137-lb. class, Dick Townsend was second in the 130-lb. division, and Ed Schnieder won third in the 112-lb. weight. Seventy boys from eight schools competed in this meet.

Although Coach Palmer has always produced winning wrestling teams, he will undoubtedly find a difficult task next season in filling the shoes of three graduating seniors. These boys, Ramon Lang, Dan Decker, and Dinny Hams, have counted considerably in the winning and placing of the Ottawa matmen.

Winter Brings

The first of November marked the initial meeting of the basketball team of 1940-41. A squad with a large gap to fill from the graduation of four of last fall's starting line-up shaped into a team selecting as its birth in city league play,

Ottawa 30; St. Joseph 24

The first game of the season resulted in the first win, an exciting game played on Ottawa's home floor.

Ottawa 20; Holland 21

A heart-breaking game with a one-point margin proving the victor.

Ottawa 38; Union 19

The first league game and first league win of the season. Ottawa took the Redhawks into camp.

Ottawa 28; Traverse City 29

This was a repeat performance of a one-point defeat. The game, held at Traverse City, went into a three-minute overtime period.

Ottawa 27; Creston 21

A close, hard-fought battle was played on Creston's floor. Ottawa had two wins so far in the city race.

Ottawa 35; South 46

A championship team defeated the Indians in a hard-fought duel. The game was climaxed by last minute action, three Trojans leaving the game via the foul route.

Ottawa 38; Catholic Central 42

A trailing team emerged victor in the last period of play, a rally that meant the first league defeat for the Tribesmen.

Ottawa 36; Christian 40

A late Ottawa rally lacked the punch to defeat a fast-starting Christian quintet.

Ottawa 17; Davis Tech 30

An off-night for the Indians led a Tech team into victory. Ottawa had now won two and lost three in the race for the city title.

Ottawa 33; Central 31

An early lead held to a two-point margin enabled the Hill-toppers to hand Ottawa its fourth defeat in city play.

Ottawa 33; Union 26

Ottawa defeated the Redhawks for the second time in a spectacular duel.

Baskethall Season

Ottawa 35; Creston 36 The Polar Bears handed the Indians a one-point, thrillpacked defeat.

Ottawa 31; South 42

A fast and close game was upset by a last-minute scoring streak by the Trojans, turning it into a decided victory.

Ottawa 38; Catholic 36

The closing game of the season resulted in a win due to the accurate foul-shooting of the Indians, climaxing the season of 1940-41.

Ottawa was eliminated in the first round in the State Regional tournament by a fast Lansing Central team. The score was 40 to 26.

Harold Botts, co-captain with Norman Krombeen, received recognition in city play by being placed on the all-city squad.

Statistics of the past season show that Ottawa marked up 437 points to the opponents 445. Harold Botts was the high scorer with 118 points to his credit. Reynier made the greatest number of points during one game and also had the highest foul-shooting record. He made 17 points in the Creston game and maintained an average of 60 per cent from the everimportant foul line.

Coach Ludwick has produced many first rate teams during his era as basketball coach here at Ottawa. Although the past season was not by far the best, it did prove to be a fine, successful season for the boys who participated in the sport. The second team, under the supervision of Coach Koets, had its winning streak of thirty-three games broken by a defeat at the hands of Holland Christian. The reserves showed throughout the season that they would be capable of taking over the honors of first team next season. Paced by Allen, Martin, Horn, Montgomery, and Sluiter, the second team showed plenty of good spirit and teamwork.

Good material is developed through the ranks of the reserve team. Without a reserve squad, the coach would find a difficult job in trying to develop new recruits into first-team material every season. The second team, therefore, is a very important factor in developing the teams for city league races of future years.

Baseball is Gaining in Popularity

The baseball season for 1941 opened on April 22 with a game with Union and closed on May 16, Davis Tech the opponent. This year's team proved to be a fine outfit with a good number of boys returning to positions they filled last season. Among them were Breen at pitch, Roberts at center field, Horn at third base, Murphy at second, Crawford at first, and Sterkenberg catching. This list together with the new prospects went a long way in producing a team for Coach Koets.

The season is as follows: April 22, the Indians tangle with the Union Redhawks; April 29, South is the opponent to the Ottawa nine; May 2, Central will provide the excitement; May 6, Creston will offer opposition that should be the best game of the year; May 9, Ottawa takes on the Christian nine; May 13, Catholic Central is the object of the Indians; and May 16, a game with Davis Tech will complete a season that should result in the Ottawa Indians placing in the top rank.

Action picture, right, above: Earl Breen is seen pitching to Walter Sterkenberg. Breen and Sterkenberg will be the probable battery for the coming season.

Track Ranks High Among Spring Sports

Picture at right: Hugh Papke, Jim Streby, Clayton Gillette, Gene Atman, and Tom Van Kuiken are all set and eager to hear the sound of the starter's gun that will set five pairs of legs in motion. These five boys are dash men. The first four participate in the 100 and 220-yard dashes, while Tom Van Kuiken is a 440-yard dash man.

The track team, captained by Ervin Bilderback and coached by Lowell Palmer, had a short, but by no means an easy schedule ahead of them. Two dual meets opened the season, the first with Kalamazoo Central and then with Union. Next was a triangular meet with Muskegon and Muskegon Heights at Muskegon. Coach Palmer planned to take some relay teams to the Central State Relays to be run at Mt. Pleasant. The last dual meet of the season was with Catholic Central at our home field. Next came the City and State meets.

Many veterans returned along with a large number of first year track men. This year's season found consistent point winners in Atman, Gillette, Papke, Streby, and Van Kuiken, dashes; Bilderback, Ernst, Okke, hurdles, and Lewis and Read in the field events.

Action picture above shows the good form of Don Vander Vise. Don is a high-jumper and has gained considerable recognition as a miler.

Golf Team Shows Ability

The picture above shows Bill Tausand demonstrating his backswing to Claude Petchauer, Harry Allen, and Bill Lindhout. Tausand is a senior, while Petchauer, Allen, and Lindhout are juniors.

April fourth marked the initial meeting of the 1941 golf team, with fourteen boys turning out for tryouts, four of them succeeding in securing berths on the team. Coach Ludwick was faced this year with picking a team to replace the three vacant positions that were filled last year by seniors that graduated.

Although only one regular was returning to play this year, all four of the team have seen experience in team play. Harry Allen, a junior, saw service last year as number three man. He is the only returning regular from last season, but Bill Tausand, although he didn't play on the team last year, was a member of the team in 1939.

Bill Lindhout and Claude Petchauer were members of last year's team, although they didn't play regularly.

These four boys constitute a far from inexperienced squad, but will produce a good team next season as all but one of the members are juniors and will still have one more year of play with the team after the completion of the present season.

Tennis Team Shows Talent

Mr. Mitchell, the coach of the tennis team, had virtually all of the 1940 team back for service on this year's team. The only regular of last season who did not return to play was Tom Blackburn, long a steady player for the team.

Returning for singles competition were a number of boys who saw action in that rank last season. Don Frans, last year's number one man, Ed Mack, Robert Hilarides, and George Evans. Don Frans played one and George Evans played number two man on this year's team.

The crack doubles team of Carl Frans and John Oom also returned to increase the strength of the team in that division. Also playing doubles are the teams of Bill Coleman and Alex Martin and Bill Brown and Ed Mack, completing a good dependable list to carry the banner for the Ottawa Indians.

Mr. Mitchell has produced many winning teams during his commission as coach of the tennis team. Many players to receive statewide recognition have been taken from the ranks of the Ottawa Hills Tennis Team.

Feminine Sports March On

Ottawa came back to par this year and emerged victorious over the enemy again at the Junior College Volleyball Tournament. The team was captained by Ruth Koessel, who shines in most any sport, but particularly in volleyball. That makes it twice in five years that "Ottawa" has been painted on the "battle trophy," which now is stationed in Miss Ellinger's office.

This year's tennis tournament was an exciting affair, with many new "recruits" as well as the old favorites fighting it out for the school championship. Pictured are four of our outstanding players who often make up a foursome for a set of doubles.

Lewa Is Governing Body

This year, more than ever, the feminine branch of our maneuvers, Lewa Club, has been in the limelight. They have become the "military staff," or managers of our Girls' Athletic Association.

Although there was no Girls' Meet this year, a great deal of the girls' time was occupied in helping Miss Ellinger (who is' incidentally, their sponsor now) get settled here. Other things that kept them on the march were bowling, bicycle hikes, toboggan parties, and spreads.

Any girl who has maintained a "C" average in studies, and has earned her athletic numerals is eligible for membership in Lewa.

Girls Perform Various Activities

Just as an army has a wide variety of duties to perform, so have the girls of Ottawa where sports are concerned. Ottawa has always held a high place in athletics, and our girls are no exception. The members of the Archery Club, of which a good percentage are girls, are fast becoming expert at a difficult sport. As for the old favorites, softball and badminton, we have many participants who may be classed as "veteran soldiers."

This year, for the first time, junior high girls were rewarded for their efforts in sports. It went over big with the girls, and will undoubtedly be made a permanent part of the athletic program.

Girls Maneuvers Reach High Point This Year

Just as a division of soldiers obeys the command "Line up," so do the members of Miss Ellinger's girls' gym classes, for her whistle means precisely the same thing to the girls as the leader's shout does to the men.

There were various types of activities in the gym classes this year, among them duck pin bowling, dancing, indoor, and the everpopular volleyball, which was taken up this year on a really scientific basis.

This year saw for the first time in quite a while a change in teachers in the girls' athletic department. Although we regretted seeing Miss Sheehan go, Miss Ellinger is doing a most satisfactory job of taking over the "general's post," and has already, because of her willingness to cooperate in all things, and her genial nature become a big favorite with the girls.

FURLOUGHS

OFF TO A GOOD START

Newton Dilley has the floor at the Senior Meeting after which about 50 seniors were accidentally locked in the boys' gym.

The Grand March at the Senior Mixer was a fine way for the students to become acquainted with one another.

Seniors Show United Spirit

Few students, when they returned to school in September, realized what fun was in store for them during the future school year.

After the election of its officers, the Senior class became very busy holding meetings and planning activities that would be enthusiastically received by the students and faculty alike. First there was the Senior Mixer, held in the boys' gym, with the purpose of promoting friendship and unity among the seniors. This was followed by a dance called the "Drumstick Drag," sponsored by them during the festive Thanksgiving season.

Along with the fear of foreign difficulties, a deep sense of patriotism pervaded the school classrooms, and perhaps it was this feeling of uniformity and equality that caused the Senior Class to turn from tradition and choose to graduate in the uniform caps and gowns. At any rate, the school year passed swiftly and happily leaving the sole regret that time could not be lengthened in order to crowd in more pleasures.

The seniors were well satisfied with their class ring as shown here on Bud Koranda's hand.

Many Clubs Participate

Much of the credit for the success of the annual Fall Festival, held October second and third, for the benefit of the school band, was due to the fine cooperation of the various school clubs and organizations. Indeed, the true Ottawa loyalty and patriotism showed itself at that time.

In addition to the many booths and concessions set up and run by the student members of the clubs, the band, under the direction of Mr. Mitchell, hired a carnival company which provided such amusements as a ferris wheel, merry-go-round, and the very popular loop-o-plane.

The designs on the tents and the Indian head above the night club were done by Miss Crego's art classes. One of the biggest events of the festival was the Mimes Western Night Club.

The senior class sponsored the pony ride; the sophomores made and sold records; while the freshmen had a booth where they sold hot dogs and coffee.

With its usual spirit of "all for one and one for all," Ottawa turned out in full force for this successful event.

Spencer Morton was the master of ceremonies in the night club at the festival and Ruth Parks was featured.

The ferris wheel was one of the more popular amusements for everyone. Here we see some band members.

Working at the booths selling candy, hot dogs, pop, and chances was an experience many will never forget. Phyllis Truckle and Doris Darling were two of the many who received a thrilling ride on the loop-o-plane.

Dave East, Dan Hill, Bill Burger, and Russ Dooge are four of the outstanding cheerleaders who lead the fans in yells at football games.

Arlene Luikes, Marilyn Hoel, and Annabelle Lawson were only three out of five very capable girls who led the band in marching and directing the fans in the singing of football songs.

Fall Activities

With the beginning of Autumn the regular routine of school was interrupted by thoughts of the coming sports and activities.

In collaberation with the football season the group of cheerleaders under the guidance of Miss Baloyan, conceived new ideas for pep yells and rallies. This year's team of eight consisted of Russell Dooge, Earl Burger, Dan Hill, Dave East, Forest Fowler, Dick Tennis, George Hersman, and Roger Ryskamp.

On almost any pleasant fall day one could see the agile drum majorettes "strutting their stuff" at the head of the band out on the school grounds. The drum majorettes who so deserved the compliments paid them were Arlene Luikes, Marilyn Hoel, Annabelle Lawson, Jean Schneider, and Betty Marchant.

Horseback riding, one of the favorite outdoor sports of this season, was indulged in by a considerable number of equestriennes under the auspices of the Riding Club.

Riding this year has been one of the greatest sports for Billy Brunson, Pat Wilmarth, and Barbara Sailors.

Bruce Vinkemulder, Bob Landstra, and Bob Hilarides are three of the six debaters who took part in the state tournament.

Debates and Conventions Highlight Year

Resolved that the powers of the Federal Government should be decreased was the subject in question for the debating teams this year upon which Ottawa took the negative side.

Mr. Giddings, the sponsor of this organization, coached these students in some really fine debates, and in the tournament held at Junior College, in which twelve schools participated, Ottawa won two out of their four debates. Dave Potts, LeRoy Koranda, Bob Hilarides, Bob Landstra, Bruce Vinkemulder, and Portia Fox were the representatives at Junior College for this tournament.

Nation-wide conventions for school students are annually becoming more popular as they provide an unequalled opportunity for the students from one section of the country to become acquainted and friendly with those of another, resulting in a closer bond among the many sections and states of our country.

One of the biggest conventions this year was the National Scholastic Press Association convention held in Cleveland, Ohio. Norma Heyer and Lilian Peterson were representatives for the Legend. Pat Wilmarth, Barbara Sailors, and Kathryn Gregory were the representatives for the Spectator.

Dave Potts as "Romeo" and Barb Hatch as "Juliet" seem to be having a little trouble in succeeding in their balcony scene.

Review Shows Hard Work and Talent

Ottawa's streamlined version of that old classic, William Shakespeare's "Romeo and Juliet," was rechristened, "Romey Owed What Juliet Et," brought up to the minute in style, and presented the memorable evening of January 24 by the Class of '41.

Ottawa's own Orson Wells, more popularly known as Dave Potts, played the role of author, director, and star, of this first (and only) night production. Barbara Hatch, turning in an unforgettable performance as red-headed Juliet, was able to keep her cool composure even while perched atop a decidedly flimsy balcony (?).

The cast, including everyone, consisted of about thirty members in all. Sue Allen, Dick Ernst, Barb Schmidt, and Lud Daniels were running around the stage a good share of the time trying to make love, but rather unsuccessfully.

The supporting cast, who provided a good share of the many laughs, and the entertainers, backed by Curt Bunting's band, were heard for many days taking liberties with Nathan Hale's famous remark, "Ah, my only regret is that I have but one set of nerves to give for my 'Senior Review'."

One feature at the Senior Review was the three "Drummer Boy" singers, Beth Hester, Pat Krause, and Lois Burns.

Curt Bunting and his band provided the musical background for the senior review.

The authors of the review were Bud Koranda, John Ward, and Dick Ernst who should get a big hand for their work.

Prom Colors are

With a huge flag overhead, red-white-and-blue favors, and silhouettes of George and Martha Washington on the walls, this year's Junior-Senior Prom inspired a sense of loyalty, not only for school but for country also.

In addition to one of the largest crowds ever present at an Ottawa prom, there were many out-of-town guests and alumni who attended also.

Standing in the receiving line to greet Lud Daniels and Pat Lawrence are Mr. Giddings, Dave Potts, Dorothy Snider, Pat Coryell, and Warren Davenport.

Leaders of the grand march are the officers of the Junior and Senior Classes and their guests.

Enjoying themselves at the Prom are Russ Dooge, Marilyn Van Dusen, Mary Zwald, Dan Darling, Elsie Evans, and Halden Adrian. Red, White and Blue

In the receiving line to greet guests were the presidents of the Junior and Senior Classes and their guests; Warren Davenport and Patricia Coryell, David Potts and Dorothy Snider; and the patrons and patronesses, Mr. and Mrs. Shillinger, Miss Tenhaaf, Miss Seegmiller, and Mr. Giddings.

Explaining Why "You Can't Take it With You"

"Blow up the White House!" "God is the state, and the state is God!" "Poison gas!" "In Russia the five year plan has failed!" No, not propaganda, merely snatches from this year's Senior Play, "You Can't Take It With You," presented by the Class of '41 and directed by Miss Mary Baloyan, which after many weeks of hard work, disturbance, and near catastrophes, resulted in three eye-filling performances.

The show was fast and smooth moving interrupted only by occasional snake bites, firecrackers, and outbursts of "it stinks!" from "the mad Russian," Kolenshoff, so ably portrayed by LeRoy Koranda.

Other parts were taken by: D. Hams, V. Parmenter, N. Dilley, S. Allen, V. Bishop, B. Schnoor, R. Westerman, B. Morrissey, D. Ernst, D. Broderick, D. Potts, B. Williams, B. Brown, P. Krause, B. Ethridge, J. Zaremba, B. Hilarides, and B. Hatch.

Clearly showing the democratic attitude prevalent in Ottawa was the fact that the backstage crews and their respective managers received praise for their work as well as the important characters of the cast.

Flash! Journalists Meet Deadline

"Deadline next Thursday!" says Mr. Buboltz, and his words stir the entire class into feverish activity in preparation for that day. "The other class hasn't turned in enough copy yet," worries the news editor. "We haven't enough advertising for this issue," complains Shirley Smith, advertising manager. "In that case I would suggest getting some and quick," continues the adviser. "You accepted a responsibility to get a good magazine out on time. That's all, now get to work."

The two Spectator classes did get to work, and not once this past year did the Spectator come out late. Following the example of the journalism students, the annual publication staff studied hard the first few weeks and concentrated solely on putting out the Legend for the next few. This book, with its patriotic theme, being the result.

Assemblies Feature Red, White and Blue

Mr. Shillinger, speaking at the Honor Society assembly. Seated, left to right: Mr. Toland, David Potts, Pat Lawrence, and Newton Dilley.

Dave Broderick and Bob Duiven act as stooges for Magician Phillip Foxwell, at one of the most enjoyable assemblies of the year.

Assemblies Spotlight Patriotism

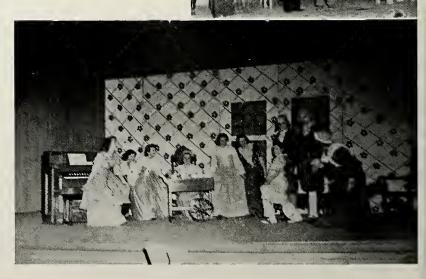

Ottawa has been very fortunate in having some excellent assemblies throughout the school year of 1940 and 1941. At one time or another, almost all students and teachers have participated in one or more assemblies and consequently appreciate the amount of work connected with putting on each one. However, it is gratifying to the participants to know that the performance in which they take part is enjoyed by the student body.

Through the cooperation of the Student Council, Newton Dilly was able to preside over many of our assemblies, and acted as Master of Ceremonies in the exchange assemblies, which were presented at the various schools in the city.

Throughout the football season weekly pep assemblies were conducted with the purpose of inspiring interest in the forthcoming games. One of that sort which met with great approval by the students was one given by the Cordelier Club in which a mock trial was held to determine whether or not Ottawa possessed enough school spirit and loyalty. (Final verdict—affirmative.) Other popular assemblies were the Chicago Philharmonic Quartet and the Senior Play assembly.

John Kett and Tom Jones, two Hi-Y members, are selling paddle pops to Dave Potts, Gerry Wilson, Mary Mastenbrook, and Lud Daniels after school in the hall.

The A Cappella Choir is leaving school to sing somewhere. A few of the people in the picture are: Wilma Timmer, Barb Hobart, Mary Beadle, and Jean McVoy.

The boys seem to be very amused at the thought of Mr. Ludwick leaving his coat in the room, and the girls look as though they are freezing.
